International Conference
On

Biological Data Analysis & Computation using Mathematical Modelling and Network Science (IC-BDA&C-MM-NS-2025)

July 28-30, 2025

Venue: JNU Convention Centre and Committee Room, School of Computational & Integrative Sciences Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India

Key Themes:
- Mathematical Biology and application of graph theory and Petri nets
- Network Science in bioinformatics
- Computational approaches in System Biology
- Drug Design & Pharmacogenomics
- Machine Learning in Big Data Analytics in biology, biostatistics and stochastics models
- Neuroinformatics & Biomedical Modelling
- Environmental & Agricultural Bioinformatics
- Indian Knowledge System but not limited…

Key Highlights:
- Cross-disciplinary collaboration
- Cutting-edge Computational tools
- Insights into Biological Complexity
- Innovations in Healthcare modelling

Audience: Students, Faculty members, Researchers & Professionals

Certificate/E-certificate will be given to the registered participants after successful completion of the event and feedback form submission

The conference will feature a diverse range of sessions, including:
- Keynote Presentations
- Technical Sessions
