Press Release

12 January 2021

Jawaharlal Nehru University is organizing the 1st Swami Vivekananda Memorial Lecture on 12 January 2021 at 4.00 p.m. Shri Ajit Doval, National Security Advisor, will be delivering the lecture on this occasion. The lecture marks the culmination of a week-long Swami Vivekananda Youth Festival. As a tribute to Swami Ji's emphasis on the overall development of the character and personality of the nation's youth, the University organized activities related to the physical and intellectual development of the youth. The programmes featured a series of lectures and sports activities. Invited lectures and an International Conference evoked the various facets of the life and teachings of Swami Vivekananda, and their continuing relevance to national and global contexts.

The Swami Vivekananda Memorial Lecture today at 4.00 p.m. by Shri Ajit Doval can be watched live online at JNU Official Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/officialjnu/live>
